Section 1. SUPPLEMENTATION OF MUNICIPAL CODE.

When preparing a supplement to the Municipal Code, the codifier (meaning the person, agency, or organization authorized to prepare the supplement) may make formal nonsubstantive changes in ordinances and parts of ordinances included in the supplement as necessary to embody them into a unified Code. For example, the codifier may:

3. Assign appropriate numbers to sections and other subdivisions to be inserted in the Code and, where necessary to accommodate new material, change existing section or other subdivision numbers;
4. Change the words “this ordinance” or words of the same meaning to “this chapter,” “this article,” “this section,” etc., as may be appropriate, or to “sections _____ to _____” (inserting section numbers to indicate the sections of the Code which embody the substantive sections of the ordinance incorporated into the Code;)
5. Insert appropriate section numbers in references to Code sections such as “section _____” or “sections _____ to _____” which are not filled in prior to adoption of an ordinance;
6. Correct the spelling of words, correct obvious typographical errors, correct erroneous division and hyphenation of words, capitalize or decapitalize words, and make other similar changes in accordance with accepted usage or for consistency with other provisions of the Code;
7. Change terminology for consistency with terminology used in other provisions of the Code; and
8. Make other nonsubstantive changes necessary to incorporate ordinance material into the Code while preserving the original meaning of the ordinance sections.

In no case shall the codifier make any change in the meaning or effect of ordinance material included in the supplement or already embodied in the Code and not repealed by any ordinance.

Section 2. Any other ordinance or section passed and approved prior to passage, approval, and publication or posting of this ordinance and in conflict with its provisions is repealed.

Section 3. This ordinance shall take effect and be in full force from and after its passage, approval, and publication or posting as required by law.
